

Annual Recommendations For Cats

0 to 1 year of age

- Series of vaccinations for new kittens
- Fecal exam and deworming treatment if necessary
- Discussion of diet, socialization, behavior, toys at your kitten's first examination
- Neutering
 - - Females around 6 months of age
 - - Males around 6-7 months of age
- Declawing at 12 weeks or older (if you choose)
- Testing for Feline Leukemia and Feline Immunodeficiency Virus (FIV)

1 to 6 years of age

- Wellness exam yearly
- Rabies vaccination
- Rhinotracheitis, Calicivirus, and Panleukopenia vaccination
- Feline Leukemia vaccination given at 1 year then every other year (until age 8)
- Fecal analysis for intestinal parasites
 - Yearly for outdoor cats or cats that go outside even occasionally
 - Every other year for indoor cats (i.e. cats that never go outside)
- Flea control if your cat goes outside or if you have dogs that may get fleas
- Dental exam and cleaning if needed

7 years of age

- Above care for 1 to 6 years plus:
- Semiannual examinations
- Chemistry panel and a CBC with differential
- Dental exam (high priority)

8 to 10 years of age

- Above care for 1 to 7 years plus:
- Senior chemistry panel and a CBC with differential
- Urinalysis including microscopic evaluation
- Thyroid screen with blood chemistry
- Nutrition discussion for senior dietary needs

10+ years of age

- Above care for 1-10 years plus:
- Radiographs of the chest for a cancer screen